Welcome to the Writing Center!

Here at the Writing Center, we are committed to providing friendly, compassionate, and knowledgeable support that will help you become a better writer. We are happy to help you with any kind of writing: for school, for work, or for personal use.

Because you're enrolled in one of the following courses—ENG 051, ENG 091, ENG 100, ENG 111, or ESL 168—you have a required Writing Center component that will consist of 10 writing assignments that will count as 25% of your final writing course grade.

Getting Started in the Writing Center

Where to Find Writing Center Assignments

Your assignments will be available on your course Blackboard site.

How to Submit Assignments

- If you are taking an on-campus writing course, your deadlines are printed in the Writing Center Guide. You will submit your Writing Center assignments to the on-campus Writing Center (LA 327) or to the Virtual Writing Center (on Zoom) on or before the deadline dates. (A word of advice: the Virtual Writing Center is a wonderful resource for general writing help, but it's not currently efficient at processing Writing Center assignments, so use it as a last resort.)
- If you are taking an online, virtual, or off-campus writing course, your instructor will determine your deadlines; you will submit your Writing Center assignments to your course Blackboard site, and your instructor will grade them.
- Your Writing Center assignments are graded Pass/Resubmit and count as 25% of your final grade in your writing course. Your instructor will get frequent updates on your progress.
- Our job in the Writing Center is to help you pass all your Writing Center assignments. If you meet or beat your deadline dates and work with us, you should pass all the assignments.
- We cannot accept late Writing Center assignments. If you have a late assignment, contact your classroom instructor.
- Notice that each Writing Center assignment has a checklist for the Writing Center staff. Make sure you have fulfilled all the requirements on the checklist before submitting your work for evaluation. Should you fail to pass an assignment, the Writing Center staff member will explain what changes need to be made.
