Course Objectives

1. Use the correct form of the verb: present and past tense; simple, continuous and perfect aspects; and indicative and subjunctive moods. Use the correct verb form in passive sentences, in the simple present, and in the past tense.
2. Identify and produce the appropriate form of the verb for a specific context.
3. Recognize modality and produce sentences demonstrating correct modality.
4. Produce sentences about the future using the full range of appropriate forms.
5. Demonstrate mastery of the principal parts of 100 irregular verbs.
6. Use 50 separable and inseparable phrasal verbs.
7. Produce semantically and syntactically correct sentences with causative verbs.
8. Understand the semantic difference between "wish" and "hope" and use the correct verb tense in the subsequent clause.
9. Write sentences in which nouns are identified by S- and O-form adjective clauses. Recognize and understand adjective clauses beginning with where, when and whose.
10. Use appropriate subordinators and verb forms in time clauses.
11. Identify and use clauses of purpose.
12. Understand and produce real and unreal conditional sentences in the present/future.
13. Use correct word order and vocabulary in comparative sentences.
14. Generate semantically and syntactically correct sentences using "too... to V" and "enough... to V."
15. Use a number of verbs that require gerund objects and other verbs that require infinitive objects.
16. Recognize and understand participial adjectives and demonstrate limited mastery of these forms.
17. Use correct word order with adverbs of frequency, time, and indefinite time.

18. Create syntactically and semantically correct sentences using adverb phrases of purpose.
19. Add the correct articles and determiners when using a variety of count and non-count nouns typical of the intermediate level.
20. Add the correct ending to show agreement in nouns and verbs.
